Observation

RUGBY COVERAGE

Please cut out the annoying flashes of symbols such as cups or team colours which indicate replays - they are a shock to the system and give me migraines! They weren't used during the world cup (a different provider) and this was much better.

Why recruit a New Zealander (Sean Fitzpatrick) who comes over also as very down and humourless when there are plenty of English pundits who could do the job?

② Programme Content

The BBC seems terrified of quality. Opera, Ballet & Classical concerts appear only very rarely usually at Christmas (presumably to reward the viewers) -

Most of the output is an amorphous mass of mediocrity presented in ~~an~~ a gimmicky style.

BBC's New Year Resolution should be to stop being so terrified ~~of~~ of real quality. Viewers tire of the sugary sameness and actually appreciate quality when given the chance.
